Northern Provincial Council.

Chief Minister's Secretariat,
No: 26, Somasundaram Avenue, Jaffna,
19th November 2014.

THE FINANCE STATUTE OF THE NORTHERN PROVINCE

A Statute to provide for the Imposition and Collection of Taxes and Fees and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto in Terms of Provincial Councils Act, No. 42 of 1987

This Statute is inconsistent with certain provisions of the Turnover Tax Act, No. 69 of 1981 as amended, the Stamp Duty Act No. 43 of 1982 as amended, the Excise Ordinance, No. 08 of 1912 as amended, the Prize Competition Act No. 37 of 1957 as amended, the Municipal Councils Ordinance, No. 29 of 1947 as amended, the Urban Councils Ordinance, No. 61 of 1939 as amended, the Pradeshiya Sabhas Act, No. 15 of 1987 as amended. This is brought into focus in terms of the relevant provisions of the Constitution of Sri Lanka.

Whereas the people of the Northern Province have suffered due to man-made destruction and natural disasters in the past three decades;

Whereas the civil administration of the Northern Province had been dysfunctional during this period and even the provision and maintenance of the minimum services to the People: of the Northern Province had been seriously affected and disrupted;

Whereas it has become the primary duty of the Provincial Council to address the pressing needs of the people of the Northern Province with a view to helping them recover from the ravages and the miseries they suffered in the past;

Whereas development and maintenance of basic infrastructure facilities and the provision of essential services are imperative to enable the people of the Northern Province to satisfactory standard of living

Whereas the carrying out of the task of such development, maintenance of infrastructure facilities and provision of services require substantial sums of money for the Provincial Administration;

Whereas the Provincial Council while being empowered to impose and collect taxes, duties and fees for stipulated purposes, is deeply conscious of the hardship any unnecessary or unjustified taxation may bring upon the people of the Northern Province;

AND Whereas the Provincial Council is constrained to raise some revenue for the provision of essential services to its People:

Be it enacted by the Provincial Council of the Northern Province as follows :

Short Title and Date of Operation

1. (1) This Statute may be cited as the Finance Statute of the Northern Province No. 01 of 2014 and its provisions and Parts shall come into operation on such date or dates as may be appointed by the Minister by Order published in the Gazette

 - (ii) furnish the return referred to in the notice given to him by the Assessor, within such time as may be specified in the notice of the Commissioner.
- (9) The Commissioner may reduce or waive any penalty imposed on any person under this Section if such person proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that his failure to furnish a return was due to circumstances beyond his control and that he has after the imposition of the penalty furnished such return.
- (10) Where a penalty is imposed on a person under Subsection (8) he shall not be liable to a prosecution for an offence under Section 32 relating to that notice.

- (11) Reference to the documents will include all documents and electronic devices referred to in Section 26(5)

CHAPTER VII

ASSESSMENTS

11. (1) Where any person who is chargeable with turnover tax furnishes under Section 10 a return in respect of any quarter which the Assessor accepts as a correct statement of the turnover of the business, the Assessor shall assess the amount of the turnover tax, which such person, in the assessment of the Assessor, ought to pay for that quarter and shall by notice in writing require that person to pay such amount within a period stipulated by the Assessor. Power of Assessor to make assessments.
- (2) The amount so assessed under Subsection (1) in respect of any person for a quarter shall, subject to the provisions of Section 12 be deemed to be the amount of the turnover tax payable by him for that quarter.
- (3) Where any person who is chargeable with turnover tax submits a return under Section 10 for any quarter and the Assessor does not accept the return as representing correctly the turnover of his business for the quarter, the Assessor shall assess the amount of the turnover tax, which such person, in the assessment of the Assessor, ought to pay for that quarter and shall by notice in writing require that person to pay such amount within a period not exceeding three months.
- (4) Where an Assessor does not accept a return furnished by any person under Section 10 for any quarter and makes an assessment or additional assessment on that person for that quarter under Subsection (3), he shall communicate to such person in writing by registered letter sent through the post his reasons for not accepting the return. Assessor to give reasons for not accepting a return
- (5) Where any person who is chargeable with turnover tax fails to furnish a return under Section 10 for any quarter, the Assessor shall assess the amount of the turnover tax, which such person, in the assessment of the Assessor, ought to pay for the quarter and shall by notice in writing require that person to pay, such amount within a period stipulated by the Assessor.
- (6) The amount so assessed under subsection (5) in respect of any person for a quarter shall, subject to the provisions of Section 12 be deemed to be the amount of the turnover tax payable by him for that quarter.

CHAPTER VIII

PAYMENT OF TAX

12. (1) Where a person is required by the Assessor under Section 11 to pay an amount as the turnover tax with regard to his business in respect of the quarter referred to in the notice, the person shall pay the amount within three months. Payment of turnover tax
- (2) Any person who fails to make the payment in terms of subsection (1) within the stipulated period, such tax not so pay, shall be deemed to be tax in default and the person by whom such tax is payable or where any tax is payable by more than one person, or by a partnership then each of such persons and partners in the partnership shall be deemed to be a defaulter for the purpose of this Statute.

- Penalty for default
13. (1) Where any turnover tax is in default, the defaulter shall in addition to such tax in default, pay as a penalty -
- (a) a sum equivalent to ten per centum of the amount in default and
- (b) where any amount in default is not paid before the fifteenth day of the month succeeding the month in which such tax has begun to be in default, a further sum equivalent to two per centum of the amount in default in respect of each period ending on the fifteenth day of each succeeding month or part of such period during which it is in default:
- Provided however that the total amount payable as penalty under this Subsection shall in no case exceed fifty per centum of the tax in default and any such amount may be waived or reduce if the Commissioner is satisfied that by reason of any special circumstances in which the default occurred a waiver or reduction of such amount would be just and equitable.
- (2) Where upon the final determination of an appeal under Section 79 any tax in default to which any sum or sums under subsection: (1) has or have been added is reduced then such sum or sums shall be calculated on the tax as so reduced.
- Additional assessments
14. Where it appears to an Assessor that a person chargeable with turnover tax has for any quarter paid as tax an amount less than the proper amount of the tax payable by him for that quarter or chargeable from him for that quarter, the Assessor may, at any time within two years from that quarter, assess such person at the additional amount at Which, according to the judgment of Assessor, tax ought to have been paid by such person. The Assessor shall give such person notice of assessment along with reasons for imposing an additional assessment.
- Additional assessments made by Assessor deemed to be tax in default
15. Where an assessment is made under Section 14 in respect of any person for any quarter, the Assessor shall require the person to pay that amount so assessed within a stipulated period and the person so assessed shall pay the turnover tax so assessed. If he fails to pay the amount within the stipulated period the said amount shall be deemed to be turnover tax in default for that quarter, and accordingly such person shall, from the date on which such person ought to have paid the tax for that quarter under Section 12 be liable to the penalty under Subsection (1) of Section 13 in respect of such amount.

FINALITY OF ASSESSMENTS AND PENALTY FOR INCORRECT RETURNS

- Assessment or amended assessments to be final
16. Where no valid appeal has been lodged within the time specified in this Statute against an assessment in respect of the turnover tax or where the amount of such tax is agreed to under Section 77(5) or has been determined on appeal, that assessment as made or as agreed to, or as reduced or increased or confirmed, on appeal as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive for all purpose of this Statute, as regards the amount of such tax: Provided that nothing in this Statute shall prevent an Assessor from making an assessment or additional assessment for any quarter if it does not involve reopening any matter which has been determined on appeal for that quarter.

CHAPTER X

- Provided that any person to whom a notice has been given under the provisions of this Statute as a precedent partner of a partnership shall be deemed to be the precedent partner thereof unless he proves that he is not a partner of such partnership or some other person in Sri Lanka is the precedent partner thereof.
19. (1) The Secretary, Manager, Director or other Principal Officer of every company or body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, shall be liable to do all such acts, matters or things as are required to be done under the provisions of this Statute by such company or body of persons: Principal Officer to act on behalf of a Company or body of persons
- Provided that any person to whom a notice has been given under the provisions of this Statute on behalf of a company or body of persons shall be deemed to be the principal officer thereof unless he proves that he has no connection with that company or body of persons or that, some other person resident in Sri Lanka is the principal officer thereof.
- (2) Where an offence under this Statute is committed by a company or a body of persons, corporate or unincorporate, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a Secretary, Manager, Director or other Principal Officer shall be liable for the commission of the offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in such capacity and to all the other circumstances.
20. (1) Subject to as hereinafter provided where during the course of a quarter a person chargeable with turnover tax ceases to carry on any business in respect of which he is chargeable with such tax, he shall, notwithstanding that, be liable to pay such tax for the period during which he carried on that business in that quarter. Liability to pay turnover tax in the case of cessation of business
- (2) Where a person carrying on a business transfers such business to any other person, any turnover tax payable in respect of such business for any period prior to the transfer may, if it cannot be recovered from the transferor, be recovered from the transferee notwithstanding that an assessment may not have been made on the transferee and the provisions of this Statute as to collection and recovery of turnover tax shall apply accordingly provided the business continues to be in the hands of the transferee .
21. (1) Where any person chargeable with turnover tax dies, the executor of such deceased person shall, in respect of all periods prior to the date of death of such person, be chargeable with turnover tax which such person would be chargeable if he were alive, and shall be liable to do all acts, matters and things which such person if he were alive would be liable to do under this Statute: Liability of executor to pay turnover tax

Provided that -

- (a) no proceedings shall be instituted against the executor in respect of any act or default of the deceased person;
- (b) no assessment or additional assessment in respect of a period prior to the date of such person's death shall be made after three years from the end of the quarter in which the death occurred; and
- (c) the liability of the executor under this Section shall be limited to the sum of-
 - (i) the deceased person's estate in his possession or control at the date when notice is given to him that liability to turnover tax will arise under this Section; and
 - (ii) any part of the estate which may have passed to a beneficiary

- (2) Where an executor on behalf of the estate of the deceased person carries on business which is a part of such estate, such executor shall, in respect of such business, be chargeable with turnover tax with which such person would be chargeable if he were alive.

Liability of certain persons to pay turnover tax in respect of business not belonging to them

- 22. Where any business in respect of which turnover tax is payable is carried on by any person on behalf of any other person as the agent of such other person, the first mentioned person shall be chargeable with turnover tax in respect of that business in like manner and to the like amount as the latter mentioned person would be chargeable under this Statute.

Joint agents, trustees and executors

- 23. Where two or more persons act in the capacity of trustees of a trust or executors of a deceased person's estate, they may be charged jointly and severally with turnover tax with which they are chargeable under this Statute and shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of such tax.

Persons liable to pay turnover tax upon liquidation of a company or dissolution of a body of persons

- 24. (1) where a company is wound up and where any turnover tax to which that company is liable cannot be recovered then, every person who was a director of the company at any time during the period in respect of which such tax is charged shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such tax unless he proves that the default in payment of tax cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of the company, and provisions of this Statute as to collection and recovery of turnover tax shall apply accordingly.
- (2) Where a body of persons is dissolved and where any turnover tax to which such body of persons is liable cannot be recovered, then every person who was a member of that body of persons during the period in respect of which that tax is charged shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such tax unless he proves that default in payment of tax cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, misfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of that body, and the provisions of this Statute as to collection and recovery of turnover tax shall apply accordingly.
- (3) Where the Assessor is of the opinion that any transaction or disposition which reduces, or would have the effect of reducing, the amount of turnover tax payable by any person is artificial or fictitious or that any transaction or disposition is not in fact given effect to, he may disregard any such transaction or disposition accordingly.

In this Section, “disposition” includes any trust, grant, covenant, agreement, or arrangement.

25. (1) No notice, assessment, certificates or other proceedings in accordance with the provisions of this Statute shall be quashed, or deemed to be void or voidable, for want of form, or be affected by reason of a mistake, defect, omission, therein, if the same is in substance and effect in conformity with, or according to the intent and meaning of this Statute, and if the person assessed or intended to be assessed or affected thereby is designated therein according to common intent and understanding.
- Validity of Assessments

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of Subsection (1), an assessment shall not be affected or impugned,

(a) by reason of a mistake therein as to the name or surname of the person chargeable, the amount of turnover or the amount of turnover tax charged; or

(b) by reason of any variance between the assessment and the notice thereof;

if the notice of such assessment is duly served on the person intended to be charged and contains in substance and effect the particulars mentioned in paragraph (a) of this Subsection.

(b) seize any such books of account, registers, records or other documents or place marks of identification thereon or make extracts or copies therefrom;

(c) make a note or an inventory of any other thing found in the course of any search under this Section which in his opinion will be useful for, or relevant to, any proceedings under this Statute, and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act. No. 15 of 1979, relating to searches shall apply so far as may be to searches under this Section. In this subsection “peace officer” shall have the same meaning as in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

- (2) Before authorizing any officer to exercise the power under Subsection (1), the Commissioner shall record the circumstances which necessitate the exercise of those powers by that officer.

- (3) Where any officer authorized by the Commissioner under Subsection (1) seizes any book of account, register, record or other document from any person, such officer shall issue to that person a memorandum specifying the book, register, record or other document he has seized.

- (4) Any book of account, register, record or other document seized under Subsection (1) by any officer may be retained in the possession of such officer as long as may be necessary for a scrutiny of such book, register, record or other document or for the institution of legal proceedings against the person to whom such book, register, record or other document belongs.
- (5) The reference in the above sub-sections shall include documents, instruments, records and all types of data stored and retained in any medium or form, including but not restricted to electronic, digital, magnetic, compact discs, soft drive and hard drive.

Power to search
business places

27. (1) The Commissioner or any other officer of the Provincial Public Service dealing with the collection of taxes who is specially authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner in writing may do all or any of the following acts:-
- (a) enter and inspect any place or building where any business is carried on by any person for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Statute are being complied with;
- (b) open and examine any receptacle where any book of account, register, record or other document may be kept and make an inventory of any of the articles found therein;
- (c) examine and take copies of, or make extracts from, any book of account, register, record or other document found in such place or building;
- (d) take possession of any book of account, register, record or other document or place marks of identification thereon;
- (e) count and make a record immediately of the cash found in such place or building;
- (f) require any person whom he finds in such place or building to give such information as is in his power to give with respect to matters under this Statute.
- (2) Where the Commissioner or an officer authorized by the Commissioner under Subsection (1) takes, into his possession any book of account, register, record or other document from any person, such officer shall issue to that person a memorandum specifying the book, register, record, or document he has taken into his possession.
- (3) Any book of account, register, record or other document taken into his possession under Subsection (1) by the Commissioner or an officer authorized by him may be retained in the possession of the Commissioner or such officer as long as may be necessary for the scrutiny of such book, register, record or document or for the institution of legal proceedings against the person to whom such book, register, record or other document belongs.
- (4) The reference in the above Sub-sections shall include documents, instruments, records and all types of data stored and retained in any medium or form including, but not restricted to electronic, digital, magnetic, compact discs, soft drive and hard drive.

28. (1) Every person chargeable with turnover tax shall, in respect of each transaction entered into by him, in carrying on his business, prepare or cause to be prepared a voucher setting out:
- Vouchers to be prepared and issued by every person chargeable with turnover tax
- (a) the date on which such transaction was entered into ;
 - (b) the nature of such transaction ;
 - (c) the amount of money received or receivable in respect of such transaction; and
 - (d) the name and address of the person with whom such transaction was entered into.
- (2) The original of such voucher shall be issued to the person with whom such transaction was entered into and the copy of such voucher shall be retained and preserved by the person by whom or on whose behalf such voucher was prepared for a period of five years after the expiry of the quarter in which such voucher was prepared.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in this Section the Commissioner may prescribe the form and manner in which transactions may be recorded in different businesses.
29. (1) Every person chargeable with turnover tax shall, in respect of transactions entered into by him in carrying on his business, keep and maintain in respect of each quarter a register of transactions.
- Register of transactions.
- (2) The register of transactions kept by any person in respect of any quarter shall be retained and preserved by him for a period of five years after the expiry of that quarter.

PART D

Appeals to the Commissioner

77. (1) Any person may if he is aggrieved with any assessment or additional assessment made in respect of him by an Assessor under Part B of this Statute, or a penalty imposed on him under Part C of this Statute or an opinion given under Section 58 or requirement given under Section 55(1)(b), appeal against such assessment or additional assessment or penalty or opinion or requirement, as the case may be, to the Commissioner within thirty days after the service of notice of such assessment or additional assessment, imposition of penalty, opinion or requirement. Such person shall, notwithstanding the appeal, pay the turnover tax or stamp duty charged or levied by such assessment or additional assessment or opinion or requirement together with any penalty imposed on him by this Statute, unless the Commissioner orders that the payment of the turnover tax or stamp duty or any part thereof be held over pending the determination of such appeal. Upon the making of such order, the amount of turnover tax or stamp duty or part thereof held over, shall not be deemed to be in default:

Provided that the Commissioner, upon being satisfied that owing to absence from Sri Lanka, sickness or other reasonable cause, the appellant was prevented from appealing within such period shall grant an extension of time for preferring the appeal.

- (2) Every appeal shall be preferred by a petition in writing addressed to the Commissioner and shall state precisely the ground of such appeal.
- (3) Where the assessment or additional assessment appealed against has been made in the absence of a return, the petition of appeal shall be sent together with a return duly made.
- (4) Every petition of appeal which does not conform to the provisions of Subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall not be valid.
- (5) On receipt of a valid petition of appeal, the Commissioner may cause further inquiry to be made by an Assessors and if in the course of such inquiry an agreement is reached as to the matters specified in the petition of appeal the necessary adjustment of the assessment shall be made or the amount specified in the opinion or notice shall be amended accordingly.
- (6) Where no agreement is reached between the applicant and the Assessor in the manner provided in Subsection (5) the Commissioner shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal.
- (7) Every appellant shall attend before the Commissioner at the time and place fixed for the hearing of the appeal. The appellant may attend the hearing of the appeal in person or by an authorized representative. The Commissioner may, if he thinks fit from time to time adjourn the hearing of an appeal for such time and place as he may fix for the purpose. In any case in which an authorized representative attends on behalf of the appellant, the Commissioner may adjourn the hearing of the appeal and may, if he considers that the personal attendance of the appellant is necessary for the determination of the appeal, require that the appellant shall attend in person at the time and place fixed for the adjourned hearing of the appeal, and if the appellant or his authorized representative fails to attend at the time and place fixed for the hearing or any adjourned hearing of the appeal or if the appellant fails to attend in person when required so to attend by the Commissioner, the Commissioner may dismiss the appeal:

Provided that, if the appellant shall within a reasonable time after the dismissal of an appeal satisfy the Commissioner that he was prevented from due attendance at the hearing or at any adjourned hearing of such appeal by reason of absence from Sri Lanka, sickness, or other unavoidable cause, the Commissioner may vacate the order of dismissal and fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal.

- (8) The Commissioner shall have power to summon any person whom he may consider able to give evidence respecting the appeal to attend before him and may examine such person on oath or otherwise. Any person so attending may be allowed by the Commissioner any reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by such person in so attending.
- (9) Before making his determination on any appeal, the Commissioner may, if he considers it necessary so to do, by notice given in writing to any person require that person to produce for examination, or to transmit to the Commissioner within the period specified in such notice, any such deeds, plans, instruments, books, accounts, lists, stock lists, registers, cheques, pay-in-slips auditor's reports or valuer's reports or electronic records or other documents in his possession as may be specified in such notice.

- (10) Where the Commissioner hears the evidence of the appellant or of any other person in respect of the appeal, he shall maintain or cause to be maintained a record of such evidence.
- (11) In determining an appeal under this Section the Commissioner may confirm, or amend the opinion appealed against or confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment or notice appealed against and shall give notice in writing to the appellant of his determination on the appeal. The Commissioner shall adduce, in writing, reasons for his determination.
- (12) Where upon the final determination of an appeal or upon an order made by the Commissioner, any turnover tax or stamp duty which has been held over under subsection (1) becomes payable or the turnover tax charged by the original assessment or stamp duty is increased, the Commissioner shall give to the appellant a notice in writing fixing a date on or before which any such turnover tax or stamp duty or balance thereof shall be paid. Any turnover tax or stamp duty not so paid shall be deemed to be in default.
- (13) Where there is an appeal against an assessment or opinion or requirement and where the payment of any turnover tax or stamp duty specified in the notice of assessment is held over under Subsection (1). the Commissioner may, if the appellant agrees during the course of inquiry into' or hearing of that appeal, that a certain sum is due or is likely to be due as turnover tax or stamp duty in respect of that assessment, or requirement by notice in writing given to the appellant, direct him to pay such sum on or before the date specified in the notice. Any sum not so paid shall be deemed to be in default.

CHAPTER XXVI

Commissioner may refer appeals to the Board of Review
81. (1) As soon as may be after the receipt of a petition of appeal, the Secretary to the Board shall fix a date and time and place for the hearing of the appeal, and shall give fourteen day's notice thereof both to the appellant and to the Commissioner. Hearing of appeal by Board of Review
- (2) The Commissioner shall on receipt of a notice under Subsection (1), transmit to the Board a copy of the record of evidence maintained under Section 77(10).
 - (3) Every appellant shall attend in person or by, an authorized representative at the hearing of an appeal. The Board may postpone the hearing for such time as it thinks necessary to enable the attendance in person, of the appellant.
 - (4) The Assessor who made the assessment or gave the opinion or imposed the requirement appealed against or some other person authorized by the Commissioner shall attend the meeting of the Board at which such appeal is heard in support of the assessment as determined by the Commissioner.
 - (5) The onus of proving that the assessment, Opinion or requirement confirmed by the Commissioner on appeal, or as referred by him under Section 80, as the case may be, is excessive or erroneous, shall be on the appellant.
 - (6) All appeals shall be heard in camera
 - (7) The Board shall have power to summon to attend at the hearing any person whom it may consider able to give evidence respecting the appeal and may examine him as a witness, either on oath or otherwise. Any person so attending may be allowed by the Board any reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by him in so attending.
 - (8) Except with the consent of the Board and on such terms as the Board may determine, the appellant shall not, at the hearing by the Board, be allowed to produce any document which was not produced before the Commissioner or to adduce the evidence of any witness whose evidence was not led before the Commissioner or whose evidence has already been recorded at the hearing before the Commissioner.
 - (9) At the hearing of the appeal the Board may, subject to the provisions of subsection (8), admit or reject any evidence adduced whether oral or documentary, and the provisions of the Evidence Ordinance relating to the admissibility of evidence shall not apply.
 - (10) After hearing the appeal, the Board shall confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment as determined by the Commissioner on appeal or as referred by him under Section 80 as the case may be or may remit the case to the Commissioner with the opinion of the Board thereon. Where a case is so remitted by the Board, the Commissioner shall revise the assessment as the opinion of the Board may require. The decision of the Board shall be notified to the appellant and the Commissioner in writing.

- (11) Where under subsection (10), the Board does not reduce or annul such assessment, the Board may order the appellant to pay costs of the Board, a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees which shall be added to the tax charged by the assessment and recovered therewith.

CHAPTER XXVII

APPEALS TO THE HIGH COURT OF THE PROVINCE

Appeal on a question of law to the High Court

82. (1) The decision of the Board shall be final :

Provided that either the appellant or the Commissioner may make an application requiring the Board to state a case on a question of law for the opinion of the High Court of the Northern Province exercising appellate jurisdiction. Such application shall not be entertained unless it is made in writing and delivered to the Secretary to the Board, together with a fee of two hundred and fifty rupees, in the case of the appellant, within one month of the date on which the decision of the Board was notified in writing, to the Commissioner or the appellant, as the case may be.

- (2) The case stated by the Board shall set out the facts, the decision of the Board and the amount of the tax in dispute where such amount exceeds five thousand rupees, and the party requiring the Board to state such case shall transmit the case, when stated and signed, to the High Court, within fourteen days after receiving the same.
- (3) For the purposes of application of the provisions of the Stamp Duty Act. No. 43 of 1982:
- (a) all proceedings before the High Court on any case stated under this Section or incidental to the hearing, determination or disposal of any such case, shall be deemed to be civil proceedings before the High Court of the value of five thousand rupees, or of such amount as is set out by the Board in the stated case as the amount of the tax in dispute;
- (b) Every such case stated shall together with all books, documents and papers annexed thereto by the Board, be deemed to be a single exhibit in civil proceedings before the High Court;
- (c) The Commissioner, if he is the, appellant shall be deemed to be a Government officer suing, or if he is the respondent to the appeal, a Government officer being sued, in a suit virtue officii.
- (4) At or before the time when he transmits the stated case to the High Court the party requiring it shall send to the other party notice in writing informing him that a case has been stated on his application and shall supply him with a copy of the stated case.
- (5) Any judge of the High Court may cause stated case to be sent back to the Board for amendment, and the Board shall amend the case accordingly.

- (6) Anyone or more Judges of the High Court may hear and determine any question of law arising on the stated case and may in accordance with the decision of the court upon such question, confirm or amend, the opinion appealed against or confirm, reduce, increase, or annul the assessment or notice determined by the Board, or may remit the case to the Board, with the opinion of the Court thereon. Where a case is so remitted by the Court the Board shall revise the assessment in accordance with the opinion of the Court.
- (7) In any proceedings before the High Court under this Section, the Court may make such order in regard to costs in the High Court and in regard to the sum paid under subsection (1), as the Court may deem fit.
- (8) For the purposes of enabling the Commissioner or any other party to appeal to the Supreme Court against any order of the High Court under subsection (6) and for the purpose of the application of the provisions of any written law relating to appeals to the Supreme Court from the decision of the High Court:
- (a) an order by the High Court under Subsection (6), shall, together with any order of that Court under Subsection (7), be deemed to be a final judgment of the High Court in a civil action between the Commissioner and such other party;
 - (b) the value of the matter in dispute in such civil action shall be deemed to be five thousand rupees:

Provided that where the Board has in the case stated set out an amount higher than five thousand rupees as the amount of the tax in dispute, the value of the matter in dispute in such civil action shall be deemed to be that higher amount; and
 - (c) the Commissioner shall not be required in respect of any such appeal, to make any deposit or pay any fee or any security prescribed by such written law.

CHAPTER XXVIII

RECOVERY OF TAX

83. (1) In this Chapter “tax” includes “Turnover Tax” and “Stamp Duty” and any sum added to such “Turnover Tax” or “Stamp Duty” and any other taxes, ,fines penalties, fee or costs whatsoever incurred or paid under this Statute.
- (2) The tax required to be paid by any notice under Section 12 or Section 55(1) (b) shall be paid on or before the date specified on such notice and the tax not so paid shall be deemed to be in default.
- (3) Where the tax payable during every quarter under Sections 12 or 13 or under Section 55(1)(b) is not paid on or before the date specified therein such tax together with a penalty of 10 percent of the tax and 2 percent of the tax in default for every month of non-payment shall be deemed to be in default and the person liable to pay the tax shall be deemed to be a defaulted.

Tax not paid by specified date deemed tax in default

Provided that the total amounts payable as penalty shall not exceed 50% of the tax in default.

- (4) Tax shall be paid, notwithstanding any appeal unless the Commissioner orders that payment of the tax or any part thereof be held over, pending the determination of such appeal, and upon such order, the amount held over shall be deemed not to be in default.

- (5) Where the Commissioner is of opinion either that the tax or any part thereof held over under Subsection (4) is likely to become irrecoverable, or that the appellant is unreasonably delaying the prosecution of his appeal, he may revoke any order made under that Subsection and make such fresh order as the case may- appear to him to require and the amount of any tax not paid on or before such date as may be specified in the fresh order shall be deemed to be in default.
- (6) Where upon the final determination of an appeal under this Part or upon any order made by the Commissioner, any tax which has been held over under Subsection (4) becomes payable or the tax payable under a notice is increased, the Commissioner shall give to the appellant a notice in writing fixing a date on or before which any tax or balance tax shall be paid. Any tax not paid on or before such date shall be deemed to be in default.

Tax to be the first charge

84. Any tax in default shall be a first charge upon all the assets of the defaulter:

Provided that-

- (i) such charge shall not extend to, or affect, any assets sold by the defaulter to bona fide purchaser for value prior to the seizure of the same in accordance with the provisions of Section 86; and
- (ii) as regards immovable property, the amount in default shall not rank in priority to any lease or encumbrance created bona fide for value and registered prior to the date of such seizure.

Notice to defaulter

85. (1) Where any tax is in default, the Commissioner shall, before proceeding to recover such duty in any manner hereinafter provided, issue a notice in writing to the defaulter stating-
- (a) the particulars of such tax ; and
- (b) that action is being contemplated to recover the tax
- (2) If such defaulter has not appealed within the proper time against any assessment or notice under Section 55(1) (b) he may within thirty days of the date of the notice issued under subsection
- (1) of this Section, make any objection to the tax so charged and the Commissioner shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Statute, consider such objections and give his decision thereon which shall be final.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in this Section, where there is an appeal against a notice under Section 55(1)(b) and the payment of any tax specified in such notice is held over on the order of the Commissioner and the appellant agrees, during the course of the hearing of that appeal, that a certain sum is due or likely to be due as tax in respect of that notice, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing given to the appellant, direct the appellant to pay such sum on or before such date as is specified in the notice. Any sum not paid on or before such date shall be deemed to be in default.
- (4) Where upon the final determination of an appeal under this Part any tax in default is reduced the penalty payable in respect of such tax shall be proportionately reduced.

86. (1) There shall be appointed tax collectors for the purpose of this Statute. Appointment of tax collectors
- (2) (a) Where any tax is In default, the Commissioner may issue a certificate to a tax collector containing particulars of such tax and the name of the defaulter, and the officer to whom such certificate is issued is hereby empowered and required to cause the tax to be recovered . from the defaulter named in the certificate by seizure and sale of his movable property.
- (b) A seizure of movable property shall be effected in such manner as such officer shall deem most expedient in that behalf, and as soon as any movable property is seized by such officer a list of such property shall forthwith be made and signed by him and shall be given to the defaulter and a copy thereof furnished to the Commissioner.
- (c) Where the property so seized is -
- (i) cash in Sri Lankan currency, such cash shall be applied in satisfaction of the tax in default;
 - (ii) cash in foreign currency, such cash shall be deposited In the Central Bank and the proceeds therefrom applied in satisfaction of the tax in default;
 - (iii) property other than cash, such property shall be kept for five days at the costs and charges of the defaulter. If the defaulter does not pay the tax in default together with the costs and charges within the five days, the tax collector shall cause such property to be sold by public auction or where such property is a negotiable instrument or a share in any corporation or public company, to be sold through a broker at the market rate of the day.
- (d) The sum realized by the sale referred to in sub-paragraph (iii) of paragraph (c) shall be applied-
- (i) firstly, in payment of the costs and charges of seizing, keeping and selling the property, and
 - (ii) secondly, in satisfaction of the tax in default, and any balance shall be paid to the owner of the property seized.
- (3) It shall be lawful for a tax collector to recover from any defaulter reasonable expenses incurred by him in proceedings against the defaulter under this Section notwithstanding the seizure was not effected. Where cash is seized such reasonable expenses shall be set off first from the cash so seized.
- (4) Where any tax is in default and the Commissioner is of opinion that recovery by the means provided in the subsection (2) is impracticable or inexpedient, he may institute an action in the District Court having jurisdiction in any district where the defaulter resides or in which any property, movable or immovable, owned by the defaulter is situated, containing particulars of such tax and the name or names of the person or persons by whom the tax is payable. The Court may after due process direct a writ of execution to issue to the Fiscal authorizing and requiring him to seize and sell all or any of the property, movable or immovable, of the defaulter, or such part thereof as he may deem necessary for recovery of the tax, and the provisions of Sections 226 to 297 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such seizure and sale.

For the purposes of this Section “movable property” includes plant and machinery.

- (5) Whenever the Commissioner institutes an action in a District Court under this Section, he shall forthwith issue the defaulter, a notification thereof by personal service, or registered letter sent through the post, or telegraph, but the non-receipt of such notification by defaulter shall not invalidate proceedings under this Section.

Proceeding before Magistrate for recovery of tax

87. (1) Where the Commissioner is of the opinion in any case that recovery of tax in default by seizure and sale is impracticable or inexpedient or where the full tax has not been recovered by seizure and sale, he may institute an action by summary procedure giving particulars of such tax and the name and last known place of residence of the defaulter to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the division in which such place is situated.

The Magistrate shall thereupon summon such defaulter before him to show cause why further proceedings for the recovery of tax should not be taken against him, and in default of sufficient cause being shown, the tax in default shall be deemed to be a fine imposed by a sentence of the Magistrate on such defaulter for an offence punishable with a fine only or not punishable with imprisonment, and the provisions of subsection (1) of section 291 (except paragraphs (a), (b) and (i) thereof) of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, relating to default of payment of a fine imposed for such offence shall thereupon apply and the Magistrate may make any direction which, by the provisions of that Subsection, he could have made at the time imposing such sentence.

- (2) Nothing in subsections (2) to (5) of Section 291 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No.15 of 1979, shall apply in any case referred to in Subsection (1) of this Section.
- (3) In any case referred to in Subsection (1) in which the defaulter is sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of the fine deemed by that subsection to have been imposed on him, the Magistrate may allow time for the payment of the amount of that fine or direct payment of that amount to be made in installments.
- (4) The Court may require bail to be given as a condition precedent to allowing time under subsection (1) for showing cause as therein provided or under Subsection (3) for the payment of the fine; and provisions of Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No.15 of 1979, shall apply.
- (5) Where a Magistrate directs under Subsection (3) that a payment could be made in installments, and default is made in the payment of anyone installment, proceedings may be taken as if default had been made in payment of all the installments then remaining UNPAID.
- (6) In any proceedings under Subsection (1) the certificate of the Commissioner shall be sufficient evidence that the tax has been duly required to be paid and is in default, and any plea that the amount is excessive, incorrect, or under appeal shall not be entertained.

88. (1) Where tax payable by any person is in default and it appears to the Commissioner to be probable that any person-

Recovery of tax
from person owing money to defaulter

- (a) owes or is about to pay any money to the defaulted or his agent ; or
- (b) holds money for or on account of the defaulted or his agent
- (c) holds money on account of some other person for any payment to the defaulter or his agent;
- (d) has authority from some other person to pay money to the defaulter or his agent;

the Commissioner may give to such person notice in writing (a copy of which shall be sent by post to defaulter) requiring him to pay any such moneys not exceeding the amount of tax in default to the officer named in such notice. The notice shall apply to all such moneys which are in his hands or due from him at the date of receipt of such notice, or come into his hand or become due from him or are about to be paid by him at any time within a period of three months after the date of such notice.

- (2) Any person who has made any payment to the Commissioner in pursuance of this Section shall be deemed to have acted under the authority of the defaulter and of all other persons concerned and is hereby indemnified in respect of such payment against all proceedings, civil or criminal, notwithstanding the provisions of any written law, contract, or agreement.
- (3) Any person to whom a notice has been given under Subsection (1) who is unable to comply therewith or owing to the fact that the moneys referred to in that Subsection do not come into his hands or that no such moneys become due from him within the period referred to in that Subsection shall within fourteen days of the expiration thereof give notice in writing to the Commissioner appraising of the facts.
- (4) Where any person to whom a notice has been given under Subsection (1) is unable to comply therewith and has failed to give notice to the Commissioner as provided in Subsection (3), or where such person has paid or could have paid the tax to which the notice relates or any part thereof and has not paid over such tax or part thereof as required by the notice given by the Commissioner within fourteen day after the expiration of the period referred to in Subsection (1), such person shall if he is an individual and where such person is a company or body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, the Secretary, Manager or other Principal Officer of such company or body of persons as the case may be, personally liable for the whole of the tax which such person has been required to pay and such tax may be recovered from such individual. For the purpose of recovering the tax in default such person can be added as a defendant in the action filed against the tax defaulter and/or an action by summary procedure be filed in the relevant District Court against such person for the recovery of tax in default owed by the tax defaulter.
- (5) For the purposes of this Section the expression “defaulter” shall be deemed to include the agent, of a person who is in default and the provisions of this Section shall apply in any case where the tax which would have been paid by any person if he were alive is in default; and for the purpose of the application of those provisions in any such case, the expression “defaulter” in Subsection (1) means,

- (a) the executor or administrator of a deceased person ; or
- (b) any person who takes possession of, or intermeddle with the property of a deceased person; or
- (d) any person who has applied or is entitled to apply to a District Court for the grant or resealing of a probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased person.

Recovery of tax
from persons
leaving Sri Lanka

89. (1) Where the Commissioner is of opinion that any person is about to or likely to leave Sri Lanka without paying the amount of tax required to be paid by such person, he may issue a certificate containing particulars of such amount and the name of such person to a Magistrate who shall, on receipt thereof direct the Controller of Immigration and Emigration to prevent such person from leaving Sri Lanka without paying the amount or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner for payment thereof.
- (2) At the time of issue of his certificate to the Magistrate the Commissioner shall issue to such person a notification thereof by personal service or registered letter sent through the post, or telegraph; but the non- receipt of such notification by such person shall not invalidate proceedings under this Section.
- (3) Production of the certificate signed by the Commissioner stating that the amount has been paid or that security has been furnished or that the amount has been paid to a Police Officer in charge of a Police Station, shall be sufficient authority for allowing such person to leave Sri Lanka. Any Police Officer to whom the amount of tax has been paid shall forthwith pay such amount to the Commissioner.

Recovery of tax by more than one means

90. Where the Commissioner is of opinion that application of any of the provisions of this Chapter has failed or is likely to fail to secure the payment of the whole or any part of the tax due under this Statute from any person, it shall be lawful for him to proceed to recover any sum remaining unpaid by any other lawful means of recovery provided in this Chapter.

Power to recover taxes from any person

91. The Commissioner may, by notice in writing to any person, require that person to furnish within the period specified in such notice, such information as the Commissioner may require for the purposes of recovery of any tax due from such person.
